Letter from Gian

One of the most wonderful things in life is studying God's Word. You love the Lord God. You love The Bible. You love Jesus. You pray. Putting all these concepts together, if all this is true in your life, you study God's Word, don't you?

There are two occasions in the year when many people hear about Jesus. Everyone expects to hear messages related to Baby Jesus on Christmas, and on Easter, the Crucifixion of our Lord. Even the ungodly people expect that. Some of them, like most Christians, even go to church those two times per year. Good for them... Bravo!

The true disciple of our Lord Jesus does not operate that way. It is the person who devotes his/her life to our Lord God, the one who depends entirely on the Lord, The Bible, and The Holy Spirit. The true disciple only breathes normally when reading the Scripture, and takes time every day to reflect on those passages that he/she reads. The true disciple knows that what really matters in life is to be close to the Lord, and listening to The Holy Spirit all day long. The Bible is the dependable and certain source of that "voice". As a result, a true disciple reads The Bible every day.

Take your time to go directly to The Holy Bible. There are many versions. Choose one, and study it, with prayer. Watching, listening, or reading someone's message is good; that is one way to help you be encouraged or to find an explanation or application to certain portions of the Scripture.

Our Lord has the ability to reveal to you wonderful things when you read His Word. The Holy Spirit will open your understanding of the Holy Scriptures. If suddenly you find yourself not comprehending something that you read, you can pray and tune your heart to the Holy frequency of God, and the Holy Spirit will guide you. That is when you are studying and reflecting on God's Word. You will then be in a position to consult with online Bible teachers who have published innumerable books about it. Your pastor should be able to help you understand those passages, and with that, you will open a door to access knowledge and wisdom that you never thought before you could have.

ADJUSTING TO NEW TIMES | WS#315 | November 6, 2022

If change is inevitable, then we must adapt to it. Because refusing change leads to serious problems. For instance, if you are compelled to bend and you reject to do that, you would be broken. However, an important thing to keep in mind, is that whenever you adjust to those changes, you need to obey the principles of the Bible.

THE ARMY OF GOD | WS#316 | November 13, 2022

The Army of God is trained by the Lord Himself. Every one of us is a soldier in the Army of God, and the war never ends. As a child of God, you are in a constant warfare 24/7. This is because even the devil and the spirits of darkness never cease plotting the battle. Learn keys to fight intelligently, and be empowered by our Great Commander.

THANKSGIVING | WS#317 | November 20, 2022

Thanksgiving is a symbol of love and gratitude to the Lord, and it is this love that holds us together, regardless of our differences. Love is the glue that keeps us all together. The Scripture tells us that whenever we give or do good for others, we should work as hard as we can, because we don't work for the people, but for the Lord.

THE CROWN BELONGS TO GOD | WS#318 | November 27, 2022

God is the true King. He is omnipotent, omniscient and omnipresent. His kingdom is wonderful. The Lord gives us total freedom. He doesn't need to control us, but it pleases Him to see us live freely, unlike some horrible human beings, who like controlling people for self-gratification and joy. You will learn the importance of TRUE worship to our Lord God.

GOSPEL PARALLELS

This series has the purpose of studying all the events in the life of our Lord Jesus. Although it follows a chronological order, this study shows that there are many events narrated in only one or two of the Gospels, but not necessarily in all of them. There are topics that only Matthew wrote, and the same thing happens with Mark, Luke, and John, which makes it very interesting.

The video edition of this study plays an important role because the viewer can see a graph on the screen that shows which passages are listed in which Gospel. An illustration that makes us understand this study is this: Imagine you are driving on a highway with four lanes, where each lane represents a Gospel. As you drive forward, you find the need to switch lanes. You know all the lanes are going in the same direction, toward the destination, the death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus, but in some moments you can change to a different lane. This helps us to visualize how interesting this study is.

Join us on any of our platforms on Wednesday evenings, at 7pm CST, or simply visit the platform of your preference and choose Bible Study. Then navigate to the date/episode of your preference.

THE BEST REVENGE (The Musical)

In 2019, Gian began to draft the story of Simon, a kid who struggled greatly in life. His difficulties first started when his mom died when he was born, and then later when his dad died when he was a teenager. After many foster homes, he finally graduated from high school, and eventually had his own place, where he started his young adult life. Fifteen (15) songs tell the ups and downs of the life of Simon.

Anyone who goes to mygiancarlo.com is able to enjoy this musical. Whether it is via audio or video, it is an international production with singers, musicians, audio and video editors from Italy, Australia, Colombia, Venezuela, Brazil, Poland, Guatemala, and the USA.

This inspirational story creates a unique opportunity for any school, church, or theater company, that wants to promote goodness by performing the musical. There is a trailer, a 7-minute video that explains the Theatrical Package: <https://www.vimeo.com/mygiancarlo/tbrtrailer>.

Gian is hoping that many schools will perform The Best Revenge musical in the following years, inspiring young, and adult people, to pay good for evil.

Bible Study | Episode 4/4 | BOOKS IN THE BIBLE | November 9, 2022

In the fourth part of Books in the Bible, we look at all of Paul's letters to the churches. He also wrote letters to Philemon, Titus, and Timothy. Paul's writings were the doctrines reminding how the church should operate. Lastly, we see other books, the letter of Hebrews, James, Peter (1 and 2), John (1, 2, and 3), Jude, and Revelation. There is no evidence on who wrote Hebrews.

Bible Study | Gospel Parallels 1 | November 16, 2022

In Episode 1 of the Gospel Parallels, we explore why it is that authors who wrote the same concept, differ in some way. They all convey the same message in different styles of writing, based on their view point and the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. For instance, their prologue, and the writings of Mathew and Mark, are straight to the point. Luke provides a little more explanation. While John's introduction has more details.

Bible Study | Gospel Parallels 2 | November 23, 2022

In Episode 2 of Gospel Parallels, we learn that we need to have the Holy Spirit living within us in order to receive miracles in our lives. The Holy Spirit will do something really spectacular when we please the Lord and have faith in Him.

Bible Study | Gospel Parallels 3 | November 30, 2022

In the Gospel Parallels 3, the scripture tells us that we need to have faith so that miracles can happen in our life. There is nothing God cannot do. Anyone can be tested, regardless if you are serving God or not. Like what happened to Zachariah, he was not able to speak because of his unbelief.
